

Brief Description of Client

Name: Ertha Williams

Date of Birth: 01/19/xx

Gender: F Age: 74 Weight: 140 lb (63.5 kg) Height: 64 in

Race: African American Religion: Baptist

Major Support: Henry Williams (husband) and Betty Williams (daughter-in-law)

Support Phone: Betty Williams 320-222-1111

Allergies: Penicillin, Lisinopril Immunizations: up to date

Attending Provider/Team: Joan Rivers, MD, and Mary Lake, MS, APRN/Geriatric Nurse Practitioner

Past Medical History: Hypertension, depression, hyperlipidemia, arthritis, Dementia

History of Present Illness: Increasing confusion, minor neurocognitive disorder

Social History: Son killed during the Gulf War. Daughter-in-law Betty and her son visit frequently. Used to be very active in her church and loved to cook, read, and do quilting. Cannot concentrate long enough to engage in these activities now.

Primary Medical Diagnosis: Minor neurocognitive disorder Alzheimer's vs. vascular type

Surgeries/Procedures & Dates: Hysterectomy at age 38

Patient present to emergency department with husband at side due to increasing confusion and a new onset of being combative. Husband report gradually has gotten worse over the last 3 days. Daughter in law is unable to come this time to help me with my wife. Husband stated "I didn't know what else to do but bring her here".

Ertha Williams - Simulation #1
© National League for Nursing, 2018

