

Medication Presentation Grading Rubric

Medication information must be conveyed via commercial, skit, or poster presentation. The presentation must have a nursing focus. A handout with information must be provided to each class member and faculty. (Please do not spend a lot of money printing high quality pamphlets. Black and white is fine. The content is what matters most.)

Topic:

Student Members of Group:

Time begin:

Time end:

Explanation of actions of drug, drug classifications, primary drug indications, routes of administration (10) _____

Contraindications, major side effects, Black Box warnings (10) _____

Patient teaching, drug costs (5) _____

Nursing assessment: monitoring effectiveness (10) _____
(Ex: vital signs, chest x-ray, labs, etc.)

Student demonstrates full knowledge/understanding of topic (10) _____
*Must be prepared for questions from students and faculty

Topic presented in professional manner (10) _____

Topic creatively presented (15) _____

Time limit 15 minutes (presentation & questions) (3) _____

Handout for all students/faculty with list of references in APA format (10) _____
(Please do not spend a lot of money printing high quality pamphlets. Black and white is fine. The content is what matters most.)

Presentation Factors individual student

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------|------|-------|
| a. Individual member contribution | (10) | _____ |
| b. Voice volume/speed | (2) | _____ |
| c. Professional Appearance | (5) | _____ |

Grade: /100

Comments: