

Question 1:

Acute Pain, Imbalanced nutrition, Deficient Fluid Volume

Question 2:

Acute pain related to inflammation in surgical area, as evidence by patient stating pain level 3 out of 10 post morphine administration

Deficient Fluid Volume related to the bleeding as evidence by patient's husband asking "what is all the blood from"

Imbalanced nutrition related to poor diet as evidence by liquid diet and only ice chips

Question 3:

The concern would be the bleeding on the dressing, hard to determine if it is new blood or from the day before

Question 4:

I would be concerned that the patient is already at risk for fluid deficit and both Ondasetron and Morphine could cause constipation that could worsen with the dehydration.

Question 5:

While staying at the hospital, a clear liquid diet is recommended and advance the diet as recommended. Once discharged, an increase in liquids and fiber would be a beneficial diet in order to help constipation and avoid straining that might increase the pain.

Question 6:

Surgeon, PACU nurse, RN, CNA