

IM5 (Pediatrics) Critical Thinking Worksheet

Patient Age: 48 days Patient Weight: kg 12 lbs 8oz

Date: Click here to enter a date.

4-7-21

Student Name:

Meritt McGehee

1. Disease Process & Brief Pathophysiology
(Identify Key Concepts to Your Patient and Include Reference):

Abdominal contents herniated through the umbilical cord & covered by a translucent membrane sac.

2. Factors for the Development of the Disease/Acute Illness:

- chromosome / genetic abnormalities
- drugs / alcohol during pregnancy
- obese mom during pregnancy

3. Signs and Symptoms:

- membrane sac holding intestines sticking out through the umbilical cord.
- Possible other birth defects such as genetic problems, diaphragmatic hernia, heart defects

4. Diagnostic Tests Pertinent or Confirming of Diagnosis:

- Prenatal ultrasound
- Physical Exam
- Xray
- fetal MRI

5. Lab Values That May Be Affected:

- ↑ MSAFP levels
- Karyotype chromosome analysis

6. Current Treatment (Include Procedures):

- Paint & wait
- Surgical Reduction