I want to become a nurse because of the very hands-on nature of the career. You will have the opportunity to work with patients closely and have a direct role in their overall care. I also like the diverse career paths you can choose to pursue with nursing.