

My inspiration to be a nurse comes from watching nurses and doctors take care of my grandparents over the years. I have seen how nurses have shown love in a very low point in their lives. I think that I have been called by God to love others and care for others in a setting like this. I want to do something that makes a difference in people's lives and nursing do this daily.