

Kameg, B. N., Lindsay, D., Lee, H., & Mitchell, A. (2020). Substance Use and Exposure to Adverse Childhood Experiences in Undergraduate and Graduate Nursing Students. Journal of the American Psychiatric Nurses Association, 26(4), 354–363.
<https://doi.org/10.1177/1078390320905669>

1. Nursing students may be at increased risk for substance use or misuse for which of the following reasons?

- A. Heavy academic workload
- B. Limited information surrounding addiction within schools of nursing
- C. Peer influence
- D. All of the above are correct

2. Which of the following statements is true?

- A. Schools of nursing should pursue disciplinary action for students who use illicit substances
- B. Schools of nursing should implement non-punitive policies for students struggling with illicit substance use or alcohol use
- C. For students under the age of 21 years who drink alcohol, schools of nursing should prohibit engagement in clinical settings
- D. Nursing faculty should screen all students for alcohol use

3. Based on the study, which of the following statements is true?

- A. Graduate students were more likely to use alcohol when compared to undergraduate students
- B. Over one-half of students endorsed exposure to adverse childhood experiences (ACEs)
- C. Students who identified as men were more likely to use drugs when compared to students who identified as women
- D. Over one half of students endorsed moderate- to high-risk alcohol use

4. What is the approximate lifetime prevalence of drug use disorders in the United States?

- A. 50%
- B. 10%
- C. 15%
- D. 20%

5. The Alcohol Use Disorder Identification Test (AUDIT) is a ten-item instrument that assess alcohol use, with scores ranging from 0 to 40. Clinical cut-off scores are recommended at which of the following values?

- A. 4
- B. 6
- C. 8
- D. 12

6. Based on the study, there was an association between which of the following?

- A. Drug use and adverse childhood experiences
- B. Alcohol use and adverse childhood experiences
- C. Drug use and alcohol use
- D. Gender and alcohol use