

IM 7 Competency Performance Examination

Student Name: _____ Clinical Instructor: Ponder Kineman Smith Spradling Date: _____ ☐ Met ☐ Unmet

Learning Outcomes: Graduate Competencies listed in the course syllabus

All listed items must be completed to meet CPE criteria:

Communication & Standard Precautions	Safety	General Assessments
☐ Introduces self ☐ Explains purpose of interaction ☐ Washes hands: Pre: ☐ Post: ☐ PRN: ☐ ☐ Cleans stethoscope before placing on patient	☐ Identifies the patient with two identifiers ☐ Verbalizes the bed is down as appropriate ☐ Ensures side rails are up as appropriate for the patient ☐ Ensures BVM and suction is setup (if patient is ventilated) ☐ Ensures call light is in reach and instructs for use when needed	☐ Assesses pain or comfort level ☐ Visually assesses and palpates with gloves all IV access sites ☐ Assesses any IV solutions running, states what is running and at what rate
Cardiac Assessment		Respiratory Assessment
☐ Places stethoscope against skin ☐ Auscultates heart sounds in 4 locations for 2 heartbeats ☐ Auscultates apical heart rate for 1 minute ☐ Assess radial and pedal pulses bilaterally ☐ States whether heart rhythm is normal or abnormal		☐ Places stethoscope against skin ☐ Assesses oxygen saturation ☐ Auscultates all lung fields for 1 full breath (Anterior 7 and/or Posterior 10 positions) ☐ Observes chest for equal chest rise during inspiration and expiration
Focused Assessments: Pick ONE and provide a rationale for your choice
Neurological Assessment	Peripheral Vascular Assessment	Abdominal Assessment
☐ Assesses level of consciousness ☐ Eye opening ☐ Verbal response ☐ Orientation ☐ Assesses motor function ☐ Hand grasp ☐ Toe wiggle	☐ Assesses six P's in bilateral extremities: ☐ Pain ☐ Pallor ☐ Pulses ☐ Paresthesia ☐ Paralysis ☐ Poikilothermia	☐ Inspects the abdomen ☐ Places stethoscope against skin ☐ Auscultates the abdomen in the epigastric region and all four quadrants ☐ Performs light palpation over epigastric region and all four quadrants

*Clinical instructor reserves the right to have the student conduct a 2nd CPE