Simulation time: 11:10 Mins

- 00:00 You checked scene safety. It was correct to check scene safety in order to maintain your own safety.
- 00:30 You washed your hands.
- 00:36 You identified the patient.
- 03:03 You asked the patient: Is it OK for your cousin to be here, while we talk? It was correct to let the patient give her consent for letting her cousin be a part of the interview.
- 03:19 The patient said: Alice! Don't leave me! Nurse, she said she wanted some coffee. You answered: Mrs. Waterfall, I will stay with you if Alice wants to get some coffee. You used the therapeutic technique of offering self.
- 03:33 You asked the patient: Can you tell me a little bit more about what's going on with you today? It was appropriate to ask the patient what was going on with her to get an understanding of this.
- 03:55 The patient said: I had a horrible morning! I could not find my bag, then I broke a glass, and I could not get in touch with my father. My life is falling apart! You answered: You must be feeling as if everything is out of your control. You used the therapeutic technique of translating to feelings.
- 04:31 You asked the patient: Over the past year, when did you feel your best? It was appropriate to ask the patient about when she felt her best.
- 04:48 The patient said: You are trying to kill me by making me go through this surgery without it. All of you are out to get me. You want me to die! You answered: Ms. Waterfall, I am your nurse and I'm here to help you. You used the therapeutic technique of giving information.
