

Hello, my name is Carmelita Sifuentez. I have always wanted to become a nurse since I was growing up. A dream comes true. Nursing comes from deep inside within me. By being a nurse, I can show my caring for the person as a whole person. By listening, showing compassionate and understanding to help recover from illness or other difficult situations.