

WHY I WANT TO BE A NURSE

My main inspiration to become a nurse comes from wanting to help others in their time of need. I feel that helping others fulfills me spiritually and emotionally because I can do God's work through patient care. Also you learn new things everyday that will help each patient in different ways. Furthermore, nursing is one of the most respected professions and is always evolving no matter which nursing field I decide to pursue.