

I want to be a nurse because I want to serve others and help people live healthy lifestyles. I've always been interested in the nursing field, and I believe that it is a profession in which you can truly impact others in a positive way. I'm looking forward to all of the challenges, opportunities, and experiences that I will encounter in the years to come.