

Out of Class Assignment: Introduction to Patient Education

1. Patient education closely parallels this process.

Answer:

2. Effective communication involves this information from the learner about the helpfulness of the education.

Answer:

3. Fill in the blank

The teacher _____ learning, thus providing more than facts.

4. Every moment with a patient must be thought of as this type of interaction.

Answer:

5. True False

Nurses have an ethical responsibility to educate patients.

6. Name 2 sources that provide standards for nurses regarding patient education.

Answer:

Answer:

7. A patient receiving a flu vaccine is an example of this purpose of patient information

Answer:

8. Fill in the blank.

Education for coping with impaired functioning can prepare a patient and their family and patient for the _____ normal.

9. State the ultimate goal of teaching patients.

Answer:

10. Access the internet and provide one reputable source of healthcare information for a patient.