Comments:

While I was doing the priming of the IVPB, I would've let it drip a little into the trash, but I would've stood further away and I wouldn't let as much drip out as I did. When I did my practice video, the catheter kit was set up correctly, but I failed to verify everything was correctly in place before starting my video. I would make sure the kit is set up correctly, because I crossed into my sterile field. I would've pulled the catheter tube a different way so that I didn't cross into my sterile field.
