Comments: I felt way better doing this video personally. I did go over time a little but I just wanted to be thorough. I did turn my back away from the patient when I went to get a straw which was my lack of preparation, but I know now not to forget that. I also forgot to mention that I was looking at the chest and upper airway for any cyanosis, shape, size, and as well I forgot to assess for cough. For the GI I should have asked about bowel movements, habits, or any changes of recent. Finally I definitely missed cleaning the skin with an alcohol pad before administering the insulin. I missed it since it was done on the skin pad. I felt very confident in my skills all around with hand hygiene and keeping asepsis. Thank you
