

Brylee Behrens

Patient Care pg. 88 #2

2. Sandy's comments about Laura were completely wrong. There is no reason for her to reveal private medical information, especially when it is false information. Sandy was not following HIPPA and was disclosing Laura's information without her knowledge or consent. I believe the complaint was rightfully filed with the hospital administration because Sandy was in the wrong and there should be consequences for Sandy.