I want to become a nurse so I can help and take care of people. I was inspired to become a nurse when I saw nurses care for my loved ones. I want to be a part of the process of helping patients recover. That is fulfilling to me. I want to be a nurse who not only shows compassion and care for a patient, I want to be able to provide the best nursing skills of my ability to help patients in their recovery journey.