I want to be a nurse because I want to help people and be a light in the world. When I was young I had the opportunity to see lots of nurses when my Nana was sick. I saw how they helped her and brightened her day even in her toughest times. And I wanted to be just like those nurses and help people like my Nana.