

Carmelita Sifuentez:

Why do I want to become a nurse? I knew I wanted to become a nurse since at an early age when I self-experienced loss and illness personally. I felt that by becoming a nurse this would give me the opportunity to help others and my loved ones. I knew then and now that God's plan for me to be a nurse was what I would become.