Group Member: Benton Coursey

What did this member contribute to the presentation?

Benny did all of his research on his part of the poster and had relevant sources and had his citations. He was also helpful and present when putting the poster together. And I appreciate his initiative to speak when we present, even though he is a quiet person.

Additional Comments: I am proud of our group. I think once we were able to split and decide who was doing what we were all accountable and participated by doing our own research and then we were able to come together as a group to put the poster together and go over talking points and our plans for presenting. I think everyone did their part and what I was expecting of them.
