Additional Comments: Overall, I feel that the work that our group produced in the end was very good. However, the road getting there was rough. As I mentioned to you in class today, we did not work as a team or communicate as effectively as we could have. I had a difficult time working with a certain individual in our group more than likely due to a difference in personalities but at times I felt that I did not receive the same respect I was giving to this individual. Our organization as a group could have also been better. I really wanted to have a more active role in the board decoration/decision making but I felt that this same individual mentioned earlier didn't want my ideas as part of the board and when I suggested ideas or she did end up using an idea of mine it seemed to follow with an unnecessary comment. In the end, though everything did end up working out okay, I do feel that some of us carried a little more weight than others within the project.
