Additional Comments: __

Everyone contributed and collaborated well with each other as well as being open to new ideas by one another. Everyone worked around each other's schedules and helped one another. The only complaint I have is that Kenann and I would offer to do something and Mady would do it before we got a chance which limited me on what I was able to contribute due to being given the "leftovers" to do. Overall, our group was great with only those minor hiccups.
