

Foley Lab Quiz KEY (Complete and bring to lab)

1. List two reasons why a patient may need a bladder catheter. prolonged immobilization, need for accurate I&O, to assist in healing of open sacral or perineal wounds, improve comfort EOL, acute urinary retention or bladder outlet obstruction, post TURP
2. The foley balloon should be pre-tested prior to inserting the catheter. True False
3. If during the procedure your fingers slip, and the patient's labia closes what is your next step? Reclean with new antiseptic swabs
4. When inserting a foley catheter into a female patient, how do you determine when the catheter is in the bladder? Urine is visible in drainage tube
5. Once you determine the catheter is in the bladder the catheter should be advanced. True
False
6. A key to maintaining asepsis during the procedure is to avoid crossing over the sterile field. True False