

Hello, my name is Juan Fuentez. I want to become a nurse because my wife is a nurse and she loves what she does. This is one of the many reasons I have decided to return to school to become a nurse. I have also decided it was time for a career change. There are so many opportunities in the field of nursing and I also look forward to meeting and helping others.