I want to be a nurse because I want to be a positive change in people's life's when they need it the most. I also want to be a nurse because I would like to be the type of nurse that I would like to take care of my family. Being a nurse has been my motivation ever since I was little and now I am able to become one.