

I have been an LVN for 31 years. I started out as a CNA and worked my way through school. I have several nurses in my family so it just seemed natural that I would be as well. I am very excited to start the next chapter in my nursing career.