

IM3 Simulation Education Activity- DAY 1

Arrive to the Covenant Simulation Center prepared as if you are going to the hospital to care for patients. Follow hospital dress code. Bring the following to turn in at your scheduled arrival time.

Complete a medication worksheet for the following medications. You do not need to include a dose for the medications. Please give the primary reason a pt would take the medication.

- Levaquin
- Piperacillin/tazobactam
- Morphine
- Hydrocodone/Acetaminophen
- Epinephrine Pen
- Benadryl
- Glucagon
- D50
- Insulin lispro

Complete the Pathophysiology worksheet on the following disease processes.

- Coronary Artery Disease
- Anaphylaxis
- Diverticulitis
- Perforated Diverticula
- Type 2 Diabetes

This is the required paperwork for the Day 1.

If this is not completed prior to the beginning of the activity, you will be considered unprepared and sent home with a clinical absence.

IM3 Simulation Education Activity- DAY 2

Arrive to the Covenant Simulation Center prepared as if you are going to the hospital to care for patients. Follow hospital dress code. Bring the following to turn in at your scheduled arrival time.

Complete a medication worksheet for the following medications. You do not need to include a dose for the medications. Please give the primary reason a pt would take the medication.

- Aspirin 325mg PO Daily

Bring written evidence that you have researched the following:

- Colostomy care and colostomy patient teaching
- Stoma care and teaching
- Pt teaching related to Up with Assistance Activity Level
- Advance diet as tolerated.

This is the required paperwork for the Day 2.

If this is not completed prior to the beginning of the activity, you will be considered unprepared and sent home with a clinical absence.