

I want to be a nurse for several reasons, but two of them really stick out to me. The first one is that I have always loved helping and caring for others. If anyone in my life is in need or gets sick, I am the first person coming over to bring food, medicine, whatever they need. It just fills my heart to be able to help others when they need it. The other reason is that I have been around the nursing field my whole life. Ever since I was a kid & my mom was an Emergency Room Nurse, I was always running around the hospital. In doing so it sparked a real passion in me for nursing. Both my mom & sister went to Covenant School of Nursing, so I am honored to be doing the same and pursuing the career of nursing.
