

Name: Aaron Link

Date: 1-13-25

Due Mon
Feb 4 Day 1000

Psych Vocabulary

Access

- Sudden interruption in train of thought and unable to complete thought
- Recurrent thinking patterns focusing on negative feelings and distress
- Intense excitement or happiness
- Loss of identity, feeling outside of yourself, watching yourself from a distance
- Use of words indiscriminately and haphazardly without logical structure or meaning
- Thinking focused on false and details and inability to generalize or think abstractly
- Disconnected thoughts, verbal ideas shift from one topic to another with no apparent relationship between thoughts
- Speech marked by words grouped by their sound or rhyme

Word Bank

- Circumstantial
- Manic
- Word salad
- Posturing
- Isolative

- Hallucination
- Dysphoric
- Volition
- Thought blocking
- Flight of ideas

- Clanging
- Concrete thinking
- Grandeur
- Insight
- Lat affect

- Depersonalization
- Ecologism
- Ruminations
- Loose associations

- Intrusive
- Euphoric
- Echolalia
- Anhedonia

- Derailization
- Illusion
- Ideas of reference
- Insight

- Inability to experience pleasure from activities usually found enjoyable
- Avoiding contact with other people
- Occurrence of sight, sound, touch, smell or taste without external stimulus
- Remarks or actions by someone else that in no way refer to the person but are interpreted as related to him/her
- Does
- Feeling like the world around you isn't real
- False belief one is very important or powerful
- Disturbance of associative thought and speech processes in which a person digresses into unnecessary, irrelevant details
- Interfering with someone's privacy or personal space

- Coining a new word, invented word with no real meaning except for the person
- False belief body is changing in an unusual way
- Inappropriate or bizarre postures
- Expressions
- Rapid, fragmented thoughts
- Decrease in ability to initiate self-directed activities, less motivated
- Misconception of an actual existing stimulus
- Absence of energy
- Single word characteristic
- Imitation, repeats others words
- Rapid shift of attention