

I demonstrated safety and quality in multiple different instances during this clinical week. My patient was laboring in a standing position due to her baby being not engaged. I provided anti-slip socks to prevent falls. I was also able to perform a vaginal exam and insert an indwelling catheter for my patient and I was very careful to maintain sterile technique throughout both procedures. I also checked the Oxytocin rate and assisted my patient to the bathroom.