

Website Information on Accreditation Standards

To complete this form, you will navigate through the website www.jrcert.org. Either type your answers in the fields below or copy/past directly from the source. Once you have completed the assignment you can submit two ways; through the designated Dropbox in scholar or in person by printing the document.

1. What does the acronym JRCERT stand for?
 - a. The Joint Review Committee on Education in Radiology Technology
2. What is JRCERT's mission statement?
 - a. They promote the excellence of the program through an application of professional standards that endorse academic integrity and quality as well as exemplary healthcare through the accreditation of educational programs in radiography radiation therapy magnetic resonance and medical dosimetry.
3. What is JRCERT's vision statement?
 - a. To be the premier programmatic accreditor in medical imaging and therapeutic sciences that provides an equitable, integrity-driven accreditation process by empowering programs to achieve excellence in education.
4. What are the nine core values of JRCERT's?
 - a. Believes educational quality and integrity must not be compromised.
 - b. Exemplifies the highest ethical principles in our actions and decisions.
 - c. Advocates for quality healthcare through the application of established professional standards.
 - d. Respects and protects the rights of students.
 - e. Safeguards the education of students by ensuring that programs apply equitable policies and procedures.
 - f. Acknowledges that belonging, respect, and fairness are essential to our organizational processes and interactions with our communities of interest.
 - g. Promotes innovative processes that lead to excellence in education.
 - h. Collaborates with other organizations to advance the profession.
 - i. Responds in a proactive and dynamic manner to the environment in which it operates.
5. What are the two types of educational programs that can be accredited by JRCERT?
 - a. radiography
 - b. radiation therapy
6. What year was JRCERT established?
 - a. 1969
7. What are the six standards JRCERT uses to determine accreditation for a program?

- a. Standard One: Accountability, Fair Practices, and Public Information
 - b. Standard Two: Institutional Commitment and Resources
 - c. Standard Three: Faculty and Staff
 - d. Standard Four: Curriculum and Academic Practices
 - e. Standard Five: Health and Safety
 - f. Standard Six: Programmatic Effectiveness and Assessment: Using Data for Sustained Improvement.
8. Under what tab of the website can you find of the latest JRCERT standards?
- a. Tab name: Accreditations
 - b. What year is the latest JRCERT Radiography Standards? 2021
9. What are some “Important Notes for Reporting Allegations Against a Program”?
- a. The JRCERT cannot advocate on behalf of any student(s).
 - b. The investigation process may take several months
 - c. The JRCERT will not divulge the identity of any complainant(s) unless required to do so through legal process.
10. Where would the allegations of non-compliance be submitted, if the complaint is still unresolved after the appeals process?
- a.

The information on the following questions can be found at Covenant School of Radiography’s website www.covenanthealth.org/csor and the handbook. This information is also available on JRCERT’s website, however, it may be easier obtained through the Covenant media.

11. What is the policy number for Covenant School of Radiography’s Appeal Process—Grievance?
(Handbook)
- a. 113
12. What are the steps to Covenant School of Radiography’s appeal process?
- a. The problem should be discussed between the student and the program director
 - b. If the student is unsatisfied with the decision the program director must be notified to discuss the problem
 - c. If the student still believes that the problem still exist he or she can send a written statement
13. What are the goals and student learning outcomes (SLOs) CSOR has chosen to focus on as part of their accreditation process?
- a. Goal 1: Student will be able to safely and competently perform radiographic procedures

Outcomes: Students will practice radiation safely at all times

Outcomes: Students will demonstrate an understanding of equipment operation by utilizing psychomotor and critical thinking skills

- b. Students will evaluate the importance of professional development and growth
 - i. Outcome: students will be able to identify unprofessional and unethical and professional behavior impact the lives of patients their families their health care providers their communities and the country
 - ii. Outcome: Students will understand their legal obligations to their patients and to the hospital/ institutions
- c. Goal 2: students will use critical thinking and problem solving
 - i. Outcome: student will be able to identify and correct technical and positional errors on radiographs
 - ii. Outcome: students will be able to acceptance technical factors by utilizing critical thinking
- d. Goal 3: students will be able to communicate effectively
 - i. Outcome: students will practice written communication skills
 - ii. Outcome: students will be able to communicate orally and interact effectively with physicians and coworkers
- e. Goal 4:
 - i. Outcome:
 - ii. Outcome:

14. Find the most recent program effectiveness data on behalf of Covenant School of Radiography.

(Radiography- Covenant Medical Center)

- a. What is our current length of accreditation award? 5 years
- b. When is our next scheduled review? 2027
- c. What is our current completion rate (%)? 87
- d. What is our current credential examination pass rate (%)? 100
- e. What is our current Job placement rate (%)?100