

I want to become a nurse because I enjoy making a difference in any way I can. I also grew up not only seeing my mom go through nursing school but becoming the best nurse she possible can. She was and is always challenging herself to go further in her education and helping patients lives become better every day. These reasons are some of the few why I want to become a nurse and I hope to find more as I continue these next two years at Covenant.