

The reason I decided and am striving to become a nurse is to excel further in my career in medicine. Nursing school will be a different route compared to paramedicine but will allow me to go into the hospital side of medicine. Pre-hospital medicine is an extremely fulfilling career, but I cannot see the product of my care and treatment. A nursing degree will allow me to gain a bachelor's degree for me to enter a more specialized program as well.