

Macy Siegel

I have always dreamed of being a nurse since I was a little girl. I have had a few different role models in my life that are nurses that have also guided me into starting a career in nursing as well.

I am very interested in becoming a Nurse Midwife one day! I have always been drawn to labor and delivery so why not make it a full time job!