Relational Mentoring

- Mentoring is modeled through words and actions, through guidance to grow as Coaches.
- Demonstrating the importance of mentorship and guidance as modeled by Jesus Christ.

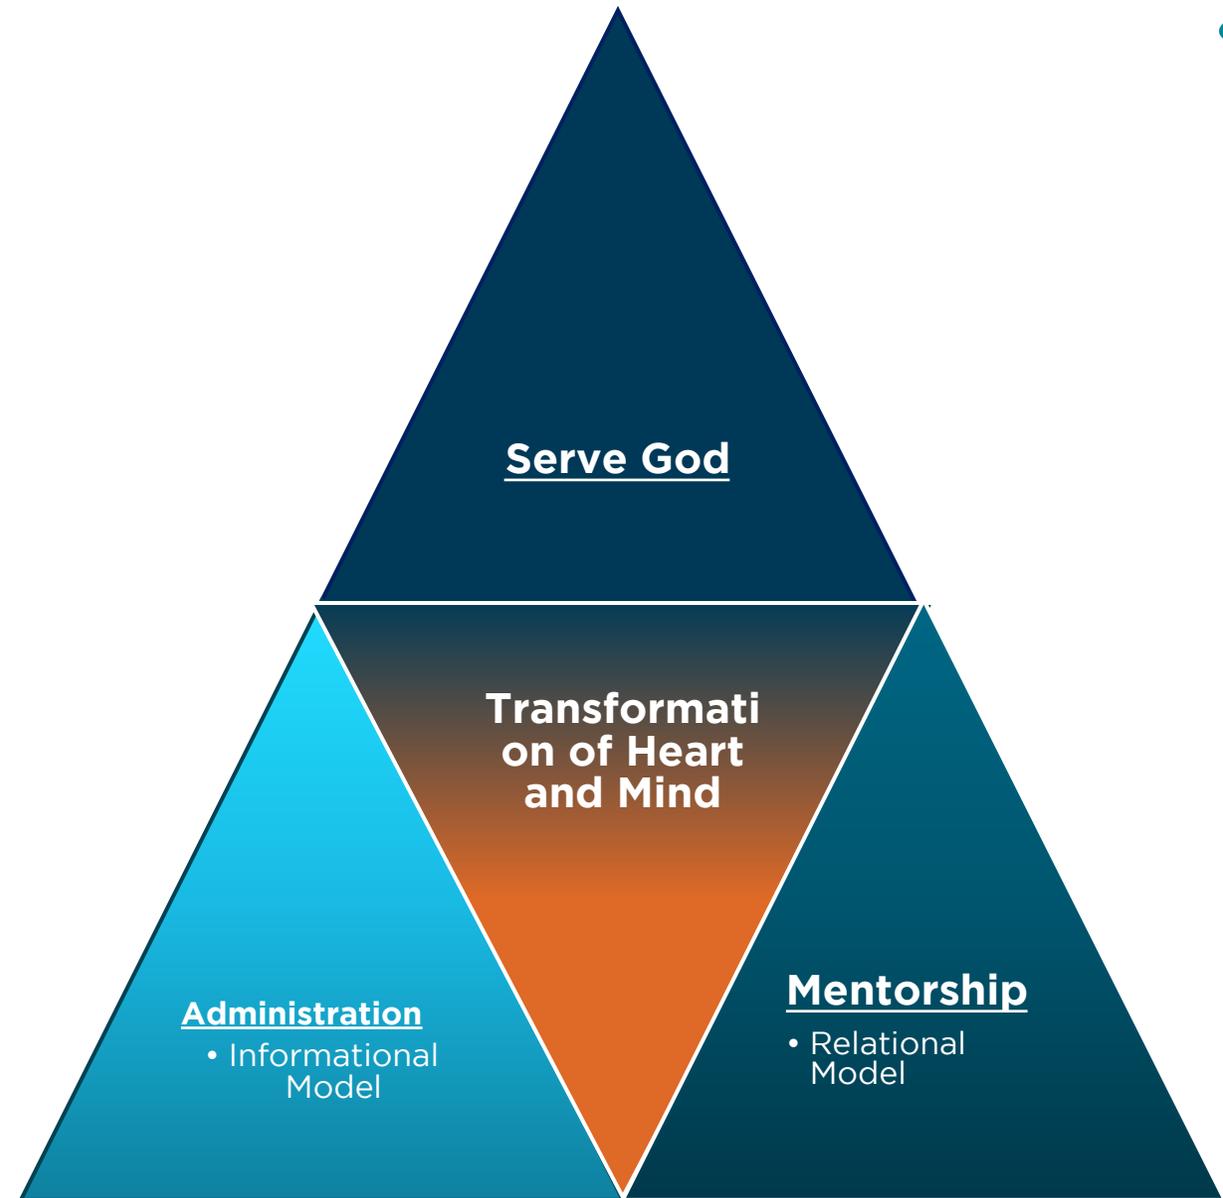

The Pillars of Mentorship

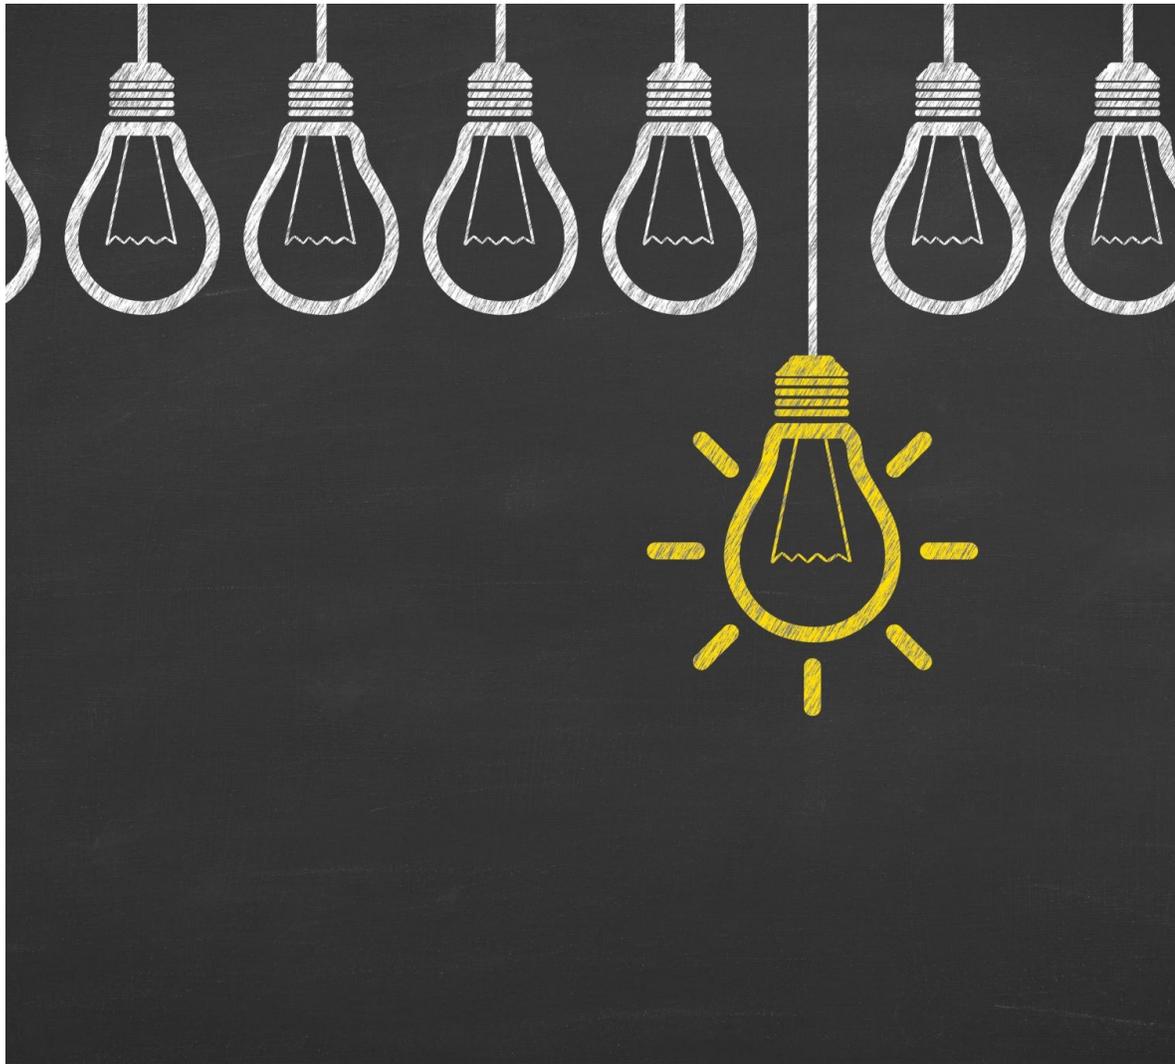

- The Pillars of Mentoring others are:
 - Interest,
 - Investment,
 - Involvement,
 - Inculcation, and
 - Inspiration,
- The unifying factor is “Caring”.

UNIFIED IN PURPOSE

Mentoring and Administration

- Complementarian nature of mentoring and administration
 - Promotes a culture of continuous learning.
 - Encourages development of skills and shared knowledge.
 - Fosters personal and professional growth.
- Leads to increased skill and adaptability in Coaching.

Budget Coach Manual

“Can you give us an example of contacting the Trainer as oppose to contacting support?”

Examples of Questions for your Trainer

The husband does not want to join the sessions - does Crown recommend that I coach the wife only?

I do not feel comfortable coaching a single female- where on the Smartsheet should I note this?

Is a client required to use only Crown financial forms for budgeting?

Can I use a free copy of Zoom when coaching clients?

Can I use either Go to Meeting or Zoom?

Can I meet with my client upon completion of the Budget Coach program?

Examples of Questions for the Admin Team

- I am problems with saving my PID assessment
- How can I share my screen
- I cannot log into the LMS
- Did the client sign the Commitment to coaching document yet
- How can I see my client answers to the bible assignment
- Where do I find the Smartsheet
- Where is the client guide to the LMS
- I no longer have access to the Resource repository
