

My recommendation for Sandra Setijono is to have a career as Directors, Religious Activities, and Education.

The job has a variety of duties such as develop education programs, recruit volunteers, schedule/plan social events/fundraising.

This career fits with her design:

- She is conventional – she is practical and down to earth.
- She likes to work with familiar and reliable procedures.
- She is focused
- She is extroverted and compassionate – good with people
- She has good interpersonal skill
- She also has management / financial skills
