

Recommendation

High School Studies:

- English and Language Arts: Focus on developing strong writing and communication skills. Take courses in composition, rhetoric, and public speaking. Claire's enjoyment of writing and communication, highlighted in our conversation, makes these skills essential for legal professions and potential political involvement.
- Social Studies: Take a variety of social studies courses, including government, history, and civics. These courses will provide Claire with a foundational understanding of legal systems, political processes, and societal structures relevant to criminal justice.

Hillsdale College FREE online Courses

Patriot Academy Leadership Congress

- Electives: Consider electives like forensics, criminal law, or debate to gain introductory knowledge and practical skills relevant to criminal justice. Her interest in "National Security" and "Law/Government," as shown by her high scores in Activity and Occupation Groups, suggest these electives could be engaging and beneficial.

Sno-Isle Tech Criminal Justice Program

Everett Community College Criminal Justice Program

- Stay Informed: Follow current events related to criminal justice, law, and politics. This will keep her knowledge up-to-date and provide context for her studies.
- Networking: Attend conferences, career fairs, and other events to connect with professionals in the criminal justice field.
- Seek Mentorship: Find mentors who can guide her and provide insights into the profession. Look for mentors that has the same Faith value.
- Ethics and Values: Both law and politics involve ethical considerations and a commitment to serving the public good. Claire's priority of "Honorability," emphasizing honesty, commitment, and fairness, indicates an alignment with these values.

MOST IMPORTANT advice:

Invest your time in the word of God, find your identity in Christ, stand firm in your Faith.

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight." - Proverbs 3:5-6