Introduction

Petrus is a passionate Career Direct consultant dedicated to helping people discover careers that align with their unique design. Through his own academic and professional journey, he has learned that while we may have a variety of skills to offer, it's when we're doing what truly aligns with our personality, interests and personal values that we feel fulfilled and energized.

As a professional musician, Petrus has come to deeply appreciate the importance of finding work that not only taps into our talents but also brings us joy. He is truly excited by the opportunity to guide others in discovering careers where they can thrive and feel at home. Petrus is here to help you uncover what excites and inspires you, so you can confidently pursue the path that feels right for you.
