What are your expectations of the Career Direct feedback?	Not sure, I did something similar in high school, but I can't remember much about it.

Hobbies	Jiu-Jitsu, embroidery, reading, writing, cooking and baking.
Outstanding Achievements and Successes	I can't think of anything right now.
What is your dream career?	I think I would like to be an author someday. But in general, I don't dream of a career.
Write down the names of three specific careers that you think you would like to do the most	Book editor, Transcribing or even audiobook narration. Something creatively challenging, that pays well and doesn't destroy the soul.
What is the single, most important reason for each of the above mentioned careers?	So I can pay for things to survive and not end up homeless.
Any other expectations/ Anything else that you are currently struggling with?	I struggle to get motivation to do the things I need to do, particularly to go job hunting and applying for jobs. I know it's not as scary as my brain makes it out to be, but it's still a daunting task.
