Recommendations on the summary:

Armand is a people-person who has a very big and compassionate heart. His report suggests Faith/ministry/missions which I will recommend for him because his parents and his closest friends recommended it for him and seeing the prophetic words spoken over him suggests the same.

Reflecting to his personality it is a very good fit, and his interests and values also fits in perfectly when it comes to the faith/ministry/mission field which could be a wide field.

It does look like Armand leans to a youth ministry field which I will recommend him to explore more and see if his heart does lean towards that path.
