

LIVING BY Design!

A UNIQUE SEMINAR ABOUT WORK,
YOUR DESIGN, AND THE TRUTH

Activity Book

Session One:

1. Each person will spend almost _____ hours working.
2. The Living By Design series will show the Foundations of Work, name how some people go _____ , and teach a path to do it _____ .
3. Three things mentioned in the video that we want fast: _____ , _____ , and _____ .
4. Gradually, throughout our lives, bits and pieces of _____ are revealed.
5. We must continually seek out the _____ for our life.
6. We all think we want to be _____ when it comes to our work.
7. Happiness is fleeting; we really long to have _____ .
8. One example of disappearing happiness is getting tired of your _____ .
9. Joy comes through _____ God and following His _____ .
10. The ability to follow God's plan when it comes to careers requires that we _____ .

Session Two:

1. When thinking about a possible career, some people think about what _____ them, what others say they are _____ at, or perhaps a career that will make them a lot of _____ .

2. You will find a much better career fit if you consider your whole design: _____ , _____ , _____ , and _____ .

3. You are _____ .

4. Which faulty decision-making foundation is cited first?

5. _____ decided to go to law school because her boyfriend was going there. Her mother thought it was a great idea because she'd make a lot of _____. After taking an assessment, she became a licensed _____ .

6. Because Paige's personality, interests, skills, and values did not match the career she was in, she experienced a lot of _____ and _____. This is because she was in a _____ .

7. Some faulty foundations are:

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____
- d. _____
- e. _____
- f. _____
- g. _____

8. _____ of Americans are unsatisfied with their jobs.

Session Two:

9. Of the _____ who are satisfied, only _____ feel very passionate about the work they do.

10. _____ of workers are not engaged; they will quickly leave their company for a slightly better _____ .

11. In a 2022 study, _____ out of _____ graduates wished they'd studied something else.

12. It's important to know what would fit your unique design so you will avoid wasting _____ , _____ , and _____ .

Session Three:

1. Why are errors scary? Because they can lead us down a _____ that God does not want us to take.

2. Loving money can cause all kinds of problems. Money as the prime motivator can also be called _____ .

3. _____ said that just one more dollar was what a man needed to be happy.

4. Another career error: thinking that more money will _____ .

5. What does the acronym FIRE stand for? _____ , _____ , _____ , _____ .

6. Choosing a career based on its prestige is often rooted in _____ .

7. _____ said, “If a man is called to be a street sweeper, he should sweep streets even as Michelangelo painted, or Beethoven composed music, or Shakespeare wrote poetry.”

8. God wants you to _____ Him with your work and _____ the encouragement from Colossians 3:17.

9. Working with your best buddy doesn't work out well if you are not _____ to do that job.

10. List the truths cited in the video:

Session Three:

11. There are two paths to choosing a career: the way the _____ suggests and the way _____ .

12. People tend to create their _____ around their careers, which can become a matter of _____ .

13. Examples of work in nature that are beneficial include an _____ , a _____ , and a _____ .

14. Work is part of our _____ and is for our _____ .

Session Four:

1. There are _____ biblical principles for work.
2. Knowing these principles can change your _____ about work.
3. The first principle is: _____ .
4. Work is _____ and _____ .
5. The second principle is: _____ .
6. The third principle is: _____ .
7. Working within your purpose can bring _____ and _____ .
8. The fourth principle is: _____ .
9. The fifth principle is: _____ .
10. Work hard, with excellence, and you can be _____ of what you are doing.
11. The sixth principle is: _____ .
12. These principles illustrate just how much your work _____ .

Session Five:

1. What is the choice you have to make? To base your choices on _____ foundations or on _____ principles that will stand the test of time.
2. If you plan to base your decision on the authentic principles, there's a practical _____ to help you!
3. _____ was a student getting ready to go to college. She wanted to become a _____ .
4. Her unique design indicated that being an _____ would be a better fit.
5. Taking the Career Direct assessment can help you follow _____ _____ for your career so that you can live in _____
_____.