

Career Direct Summary Notes – Chanté Armoed

1. Overall Personality

Confident, task-driven, and objective. Bold in conflict, flexible in leadership or support roles. Balanced between structure and spontaneity. Needs both independence and social interaction.

2. Interests, Skills & Values

Top Interests: Counseling, Law, International Work, Writing

Top Skills: Leadership, Clerical, Social, Analytical Thinking

Top Values: High income, Career growth, Helping others, Ongoing learning

Prefers: Variety, Travel, Challenge, Well-organized settings

3. Questions to Ask

Do you prefer helping through law or emotional support?

How do you handle emotional conversations?

What excites you more — justice, advocacy, or direct support?

4. Connections Observed

Strong link between personality (direct, driven), skills (leading, solving), and interests (law, social work). Ideal for people-focused and purpose-driven careers.

5. Best-Fit Careers

1. Social Worker – Helps others, fits personality, offers growth
2. Lawyer/Advocate – Matches values, confidence, and structure
3. NGO/International Aid – Combines travel, people, and purpose

6. Advice

Build on: Leadership, resilience, communication

Improve: Patience, active listening, staying focused

Tip: Get mentorship or volunteer experience for balance

7. Study Path

Social Work (UWC/CPUT)

BA Law or Political Science

Short Courses: Counseling, Conflict Resolution, Public Speaking

8. Value Conflicts?

Slight tension between high income and social roles. Can be balanced through career progression.

9. Calling & Purpose

To be a bold voice for others — bringing justice, care, and order. A natural advocate and change-maker.

10. Final Message

Chanté, you are bold, capable, and purpose-driven. Keep growing, stay focused, and use your strengths to lead and uplift others. Your future is bright and impactful.

