BIO INFORMATION (567/4000) *

Shawn Simic experienced the power of a loving community as a teenager, and that encounter shaped his lifelong passion for helping others discover the same transformative love of Christ. Today, as a YES! Consultant, Shawn seeks to help guide student as they answer the questions of identity, belonging, and purpose—helping people confidently answer life's key questions: Who am I? Where do I belong? What difference can I make?

Shawn holds a bachelor's degree in Business from Oklahoma State University and a Master of Divinity from Fuller Theological Seminary.
