Introduction

My name is Eric Pfeiffer. I have spent most of my life wondering what I should do for a career. I have a broad range of experience from farm labor, to the performing arts, to direct sales, recruiting, management, volunteer Christian ministry, and teaching. I love the fact that Career Direct takes into account how each person is designed, and then helps them take the next action steps in their journey toward the work that is best suited for them.

Credentials

B.A. Music Education (Iowa State University), M.A. Vocal Performance (Cleveland Institute of Music), State License in Health/Life Insurance, Certified Career Direct Consultant

Mission Statement

Helping others discover their design and how that design can impact the world.
