

Chapter 14: The Gospel to the Jew

Up For Discussion:

1. Is God done with Israel? (Page 174) _____
2. What do we mean by “Use terminology that communicates”? (Page 178)

3. What kind of questions should we use to start a conversation with Jewish people? (Page 179)

Crucial Point:

Just like anybody else, make sure that your Jewish friends know that you care for them. All the prophecies, sensitivity, and correct terminology will not mean anything to them if they believe you look down at them. Make sure they understand you care for them, which is why you are explaining the gospel to them.

Make It Personal:

1. Have you ever witnessed to a Jew? _____
2. Why or why not?

3. Are you prepared to share Scriptures that predicted the coming of Messiah?

2. Why is it important to know where the Old Testament refers to the Trinity? (Page 186)

3. Does becoming a Christian make a Jew stop being Jewish? (Page 188)

Crucial Point:

Whether you talk about prophecies, the Tri-unity of God, virgin birth, etc., always bring the conversation back to the gospel. The power is in the gospel, and the most convincing aspect of sharing the gospel is the Holy Spirit convicting the person about their need to trust Christ as their Savior. Don't forget, always remember to pray!
