2. How should we respond if somebody points to the “W” in the “Three Circles Illustration”? (Page 248)

3. What is a good way to transition from the “Spiritual Viewpoint Survey” to the gospel? (Page 254)

4. What are the three main points of the “Plan of Salvation from the Jewish Scriptures Outline”? (Pages 273-274)

Crucial Point:

Whether you’re using illustrations, tracts, or personal experiences, the point should always be to explain the gospel as clearly as possible. If an illustration doesn’t make the gospel clearer, then don’t use it as a tool in witnessing. Whatever examples you may use, be sure that the gospel is given clearly.

Make It Personal:

1. Do you use an invitation that is either inaccurate or incomplete? (Pages 259-264)

2. Will you commit to share the clear gospel and to encourage others to do the same? _____

Assignment:

Practice doing the wallet illustration to someone in the room.
