

Dayspring Bible College & Seminary

Homiletics TH302

Instructor: Dr. Greg Mutsch

I. Course Description

This course will prepare the preacher for preparing and delivering sermons. It will cover the art of homiletics, the priority of preaching, the call to preach, preparing to preach, classifications of sermons, and how to preach so that people will listen.

II. Course Objectives

As a result of taking this class, the student should be able to demonstrate a proper understanding of the preparation and delivery of a sermon. The student will have gained an understanding of the need for the proper respect for both the Scripture and the audience who is listening.

III. Course Requirements

A. Recommended Reading

See “Recommended Reading” below.

B. Class work

Student will work the notes provided by Dr. Mutsch while watching the videos.

C. Bible Memorization

Dr. Mutsch will give emphasis to specific verses throughout the class.

IV. Tests & Grading

There are six sections of notes that correspond with the videos. After each of the sections of notes, you will write a paper on the things that you learned in that section. Each paper is 1,500 word minimum. Each paper will need to be typed, double spaced, 12 point Times New Roman font. You may print the papers out or email them to jvincent@dbc.edu
