World History I CE312

Instructor: Dr. Phil Stringer

I. Course Description

This course is a fascinating look at world history from a Christian perspective. Recognizing the redemption of man as the focal point of everything, this study presents people and events as they influence or were influenced by God's plan for Messiah. Starting with the Christian Philosophy of History this course includes, Origins, Satan and his influence, God's judgment as well as specific nations and empires extending through ancient history and the middle ages.

II. Course Objectives

As a result of taking this class, the student should be able to demonstrate an understanding of the beginnings of the history of man and of the Christian philosophy of history – that God is active in the affairs of man.
