

Dayspring Bible College & Seminary

Biographies of Missions MI204

Instructor: Dr. Rex Cobb

I. Course Description

This course is a study of famous missionaries who left the safety and comfort of home to take the gospel to foreign lands. An overview of their lives will be studied along with a study of their characteristics, both good and bad.

II. Course Objectives

As a result of taking this class, the student should be able to demonstrate:

- A. A basic knowledge of the lives and accomplishments of famous missionaries.
- B. A burden for taking the gospel to foreign lands.
- C. A new respect for what these men and women accomplished for the sake of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

III. Course Requirements

A. Required Reading:

The Student is required to read at least 500 pages of Missionary Biographies. Books are available at the college office. A 1,000 word essay on the 500 pages of reading must then be written and turned in to the learning coordinator. This essay will be graded on historical accuracy and logical cohesion. The essay will be factored into the course grade.

- B. Class work: There are 14 lectures relating to 14 self-directed Study Packs for this course. The student is expected to listen to the lectures, answer the Study Pack questions, and confirm the accuracy of their answers. Tests should be taken according to the Test Schedule.

IV. Tests & Grading

The tests will be graded on a percentage basis with 80% the minimum score for a passing grade. Scores less than 80% will require the student to repeat the lessons pertaining to the test.
