Worldwide Missions: Fulfilling the Plan MI103

Instructor: Dr. Ron Cole

I. Course Description

A study of God's purpose, provision, and plan for fulfilling the Great Commission; this course studies the elements needed for the successful planting of a church, growing the church into self-sufficiency, and developing the church into an institution that sends missionaries to other areas of the world.

II. Course Objectives

As a result of taking this class, the student should be able to:

- A. Demonstrate an understanding of the doctrines of man's condemnation and God's plan of redemption.
- B. Demonstrate an understanding of how both evangelism and discipleship are necessary to fulfill the Great Commission.
- C. Demonstrate an understanding of the principles and practical aspects of church planting, discipleship, and missions.

III. Course Requirements

- A. Class work: There are 15 lectures relating to 14 self-directed Study Packs for this course. The student is expected to listen to the lectures, answer the Study Pack questions, and confirm the accuracy of their answers with the Score Key.

IV. Tests & Grading

The student will complete two written exams and write a 1,000 word essay to complete the course. The purpose of this essay is to demonstrate the student's understanding of the scriptural basis for making financial offerings to missions above a basic tithe.

The written exams and the essay will be graded on a percentage point basis with 100% being the maximum possible score and 80% being the minimum score for a passing grade. A test score of less than 80% will require the student to repeat the lessons and exercises pertaining to the test.

The essay will be scored based upon its doctrinal accuracy, relation to the course material, logical cohesion, and ability to meet the essay objectives.

Tests should be taken according to the Test Schedule.
